We receive applications from ministries within our congregation, community ministries, or ministries of the larger church and community. We look forward to reviewing applications and continuing the incredible impact of this gift we have as a congregation. The deadline for applications is October 15.

Bears. Beets. Battlestar Galactica.

Actually, no bears. And no Battlestar Galactica. But our kitchen will be busy once again pickling BEETS for this year's Annual Bazaar! On August 22nd beginning at 9:00am you're invited to join us for a great yearly tradition of making beet pickles. Seasoned professionals and newbies are all welcome! We'd love as many as possible to experience the beet pickles in all their glory! If you have any questions, you can contact Pat Vagle.

Calling All Backpacks!

Students! Teachers! Anyone! Bring your backpacks, bags, and briefcases to worship on August 26th as we bless the new school year by blessing the bags we carry! As many of us begin a new rhythm in the fall (or need an extra boost to get us to the end of the year!) we want to send you into the learning year with a blessing and Godspeed!

Root Beer Float Ride

On Sunday, August 26th we're taking a trip...on our bikes! We'll meet in the church parking lot at 1:00 pm for a bike ride to Hawick and back. AND waiting for us in Hawick will be a root beer float to break up the ride with a treat in the middle! So, grab a couple friends or your family or both and join us for a Sunday afternoon bike ride! See you then!

Camp House...In A Book

Eat Your Veggies

Or someone else's, for that matter! The Veggie Table is open for business! Gardeners – if you have fresh produce to share with our community please drop it off at the Veggie Table in the Fellowship Hall before church. Eaters – if you'd like some of that fresh produce, take it with you when you go! It's that simple...and tasty!
